

NO. 1,000 SEPTEMBER 30, 2007 £4.50 (including P.S.)

THE SUNDAY TIMES

EXCLUSIVE SERIALISATION
ERIC CLAPTON
GEORGE HARRISON SUGGESTED I SPEND THE NIGHT WITH PATITE - SO HE COULD SLEEP WITH HER SISTER
Caption: (unofficial) http://www.ericclapton.com

EUROSTAR
St PANCRAS
SPECIAL OFFER

Quit stalling and call election, says Cameron

Tory tax cut for first time buyers

'German 9/11' terror plotter on run in UK

By David Ikin
A German national, who is believed to be a member of the Islamic militant group al-Qaeda, has been identified as a potential suspect in the 2005 London bombings. The man, who is believed to be in the UK, is thought to have been involved in the plot to blow up the London Underground. He is believed to be a member of the Islamic militant group al-Qaeda. The man is believed to be in the UK. He is thought to have been involved in the plot to blow up the London Underground. He is believed to be a member of the Islamic militant group al-Qaeda.

The exciting new London Terminal opens soon. We have exclusive breaks to Europe for just £79. Travel, p28

STYLE
MEN'S

Sunday Times Review 30th September 2007

Liane Carroll: Slow Down

Clive Davis

So, you like Amy Winehouse, but want something jazzier? Liane Carroll fits the bill perfectly. A charmingly no-nonsense singer-pianist who keeps a supply of beer and cigs close at hand during her sets, she has a mid-Atlantic vocal that combines swing virtuosity with the raw spirit of old-school R&B. This pensive, ballad-driven recording is her best yet, with heart-on-sleeve renditions of Laura Nyro's Lazy Susan and standards as familiar as Ellington's In My Solitude. The knockout punch is an aching treatment of Rodgers & Hammerstein's If I Loved You, with a guest, Ian Shaw, sitting in on piano.

(Splash Point SPR004CD)